

PLPR

INTERNATIONAL ACADEMIC ASSOCIATION on PLANNING, LAW, AND PROPERTY RIGHTS

Call for Papers

Planning, Law, and Property Rights

Fourth International Conference
School of Spatial Planning • TU Dortmund
10 – 12 February 2010

Join us celebrating our 2010
conference in Dortmund!

The International Academic Association on Planning, Law, and Property Rights and the School of Spatial Planning invite you to contribute to a vibrant and innovative dialogue. We expect you and many academics from all around the world to present research papers, exchange ideas, and enjoy the Ruhr – the Cultural Capital of Europe in 2010.

PhD students are particularly welcome!

The law supports and restricts spatial planning. The legal system helps implement plans, but it also limits the use of planning powers. Balancing collective and individual interests, planning law manages property regimes.

Conference topics include all legal aspects of urban and regional planning, land policy, and methods of land management (e.g., GIS, real estate appraisal).

All abstracts will be peer-reviewed.

Submit your abstract by 30 September 2009 !

Academic Organising Committee: Rachele Alterman, Leonie Janssen-Jansen, Mirosław Gdesz, Thomas Hartmann

Association Website: <http://planning-law.socsci.uva.nl/>

Local Host Committee: Benjamin Davy, Thomas Hartmann, Kathrina Schmidt, Gabi Zimmermann

Conference Website: www.plpr2010.tu-dortmund.de Conference E-mail: plpr2010@tu-dortmund.de